West Virginia University New Employee Processing

Employee Processing Services (EPS) would like to welcome you as an employee to West Virginia University. This packet includes the forms that need to be completed to finalize your employee processing. Please see instructions below on how to complete the individual forms and any additional documentation required. Feel free to contact EPS if you have questions about this process, please call 304-293-3379 Opt 2 or email EPS@mail.wvu.edu.

Foreign National Employees

Appointments are required for all foreign national employees to complete their payroll paperwork with the Tax Services department. Please call 304-293-3379 Opt 3 or send an email to tax@mail.wvu.edu to set up an appointment.

Included Forms:

1. Employee information form—complete all applicable boxes
2. I-9 Form (Employment Eligibility) If completing this packet remotely, an I-9 form will be included in your packet. If completing this packet with an EPS team member, an I-9 form will be completed electronically in our office. (See more information below)
3. Form W-4 - The IRS requires that you complete Form W-4 in order to have the correct amount of federal taxes withheld from your pay. A worksheet and instructions prepared by the IRS are included.
4. State Tax Withholding – Residents of the State of West Virginia or any non-bordering state will need to complete the West Virginia Withholding Exemption Certificate. Residents of PA, MD, VA, KY or OH may complete tax forms from those states along with a WV Certificate of Non-Residence. These forms are located at http://taxservices.wvu.edu/certificates-forms/payroll-tax-withholding
5. Form W-9 – This form is used to provide the employee’s social security number for tax purposes. It must be completed if not selecting a social security card from the list of acceptable documents for the I-9 form.
6. Direct Deposit Authorization Form – As a service to employees, West Virginia University requires direct deposit to any domestic bank account of the employee’s choosing. A voided check, direct deposit form, or a memo from the bank must be attached to the completed direct deposit authorization form. If a memo is being provided from the banking institution, it must be written on the banking institution’s letterhead and must include the routing number, account number, and signed by a bank representative.
7. Human Resources Policies/Procedures, Self-Identification of Veteran and Disability Status—Complete and sign a total of 4 pages. The additional 4 pages are informational only. The student/graduate assistant remote packets will not have the self-identification of veteran and disability pages as they are not required.

Once you have completed all required forms, please mail all original forms to:

I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) requires that all newly hired employees complete Form I-9 prior to or on their first day of employment. To comply with federal regulations, West Virginia University must examine the employment eligibility and identity document(s) an employee presents. This is to verify that (1) the document(s) reasonably appears to be genuine and (2) the document(s) belongs to that individual. There is a page in this packet titled “List of Acceptable Documents”. In order to verify your employment eligibility, you will need to bring with you either one original document form List A or a combination of one original document from List B along with one original document from List C. Only original, unexpired documents are accepted. We will not accept copies of identification. Note: West Virginia University is an E-verify employer. E-Verify is an Internet-based system that compares information from an employee’s Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification, to data from U.S. Department of Homeland Security and Social Security Administration records to confirm employment eligibility. In order to follow E-verify regulations, all employees must submit their social security number and we cannot accept a list B document that does not contain a photo.

Remote Processing

If a new employee is unable to process for payroll in person, this packet may be completed remotely. In order to process remotely, the new employee will need to see an authorized representative of WVU to complete the I-9 form. The Department of Homeland Security suggests using a notary public, if available, as an authorized representative. If you are unable to locate a notary public who is willing to assist you in completing the I-9 form, please contact EPS for other arrangements.

You will need to complete all of section 1 of Form I-9. If a box does not apply to you, you must write N/A. This rule applies to all boxes, including the apartment number and other last names used boxes. You must write in N/A as no boxes may be left blank. You also must indicate, under your signature, if you did or did not have a preparer/translator by checking the appropriate box. No white out may be used anywhere on this form. Any error must be marked through with a single line and the change must be initialed and dated.

The responsibility of the authorized representative is to view the employee’s identification in person, list the information from the IDs onto section 2 of the I-9 form under the appropriate list (A, or B & C). They would need to fill in the first five boxes listed under the certification to include: signature of employer or authorized representative, date, title, print last name, and print first name. A notary stamp or seal should not be placed anywhere on this form as the notary is acting as a representative of WVU and not as a notary public.

Prior to leaving the office of the notary, please fax both pages of the completed I-9 form to 304-293-4587 for review. Be sure to include copies of your identification as well. Once faxed, please call our office at 304-293-3379 Opt 2 and a member of the EPS staff will review for accuracy. After you have spoken to an EPS staff member, you may mail all completed forms, front and back copies of your IDs, and banking information.

If at any time you have questions about this process, please call 304-293-3379 Opt 2 or email EPS@mail.wvu.edu.

Form W-4 (2018)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2018 if both of the following apply.

• For 2017 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
• For 2018 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you’re exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2018 expires February 15, 2019. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren’t exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2018 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you’re having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2018. If you use the calculator, you don’t need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

• Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you’re married and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Other Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you’re a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Separate here and give Form W-4 to your employer. Keep the worksheet(s) for your records.

Employee’s Withholding Allowance Certificate

Whether you’re entitled to claim a certain number of allowances or exemption from withholding is subject to review by the IRS. Your employer may be required to send a copy of this form to the IRS.

1. Your first name and middle initial
2. Last name
3. Your social security number
4. (If your last name differs from that shown on your social security card, check here. You must call 888-772-1213 for a replacement card.)
5. Total number of allowances you’re claiming (from the applicable worksheet on the following pages)
6. Additional amount, if any, you want withheld from each paycheck
7. I claim exemption from withholding for 2018, and I certify that I meet both of the following conditions for exemption.
   • Last year I had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because I had no tax liability, and
   • This year I expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because I expect to have no tax liability.
   If you meet both conditions, write “Exempt” here.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined this certificate and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is true, correct, and complete.

Employee’s signature
(If this form is not valid unless you sign it.)

Date

8. Employer’s name and address (Employer: Complete boxes 8 and 10 if sending to IRS and complete boxes 8, 9, and 10 if sending to State Directory of New Hires.)
9. First date of employment
10. Employer identification number (EIN)

For Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice, see page 4.

Cat. No. 10221C Form W-4 (2018)
WEST VIRGINIA EMPLOYEE'S WITHHOLDING EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE
FORM WV/IT-104

Complete this form and present it to your employer to avoid any delay in adjusting the amount of state income tax to be withheld from your wages.

If you do not complete this form, the amount of tax that is now being withheld from your pay may not be sufficient to cover the total amount of tax due the state when filing your personal income tax return after the close of the year. You may be subject to a penalty on tax owed the state.

Individuals are permitted a maximum of one exemption for themselves, plus an additional exemption for their spouse and any dependent other than their spouse that they expect to claim on their tax return.

If you are married and both you and your spouse work and you file a joint income tax return, or if you are working two or more jobs, the revised withholding tables should result in a more accurate amount of tax being withheld.

If you are Single, Head of Household, or Married and your spouse does not work, and you are receiving wages from only one job, and you wish to have your tax withheld at a lower rate, you must check the box on line 5.

When requesting withholding from pension and annuity payments you must present this completed form to the payor. Enter the amount you want withheld on line 6.

If you determine the amount of tax being withheld is insufficient, you may reduce the number of exemptions you are claiming or request additional taxes be withheld from each payroll period. Enter the additional amount you want to have withheld on line 6.

Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification

Go to www.irs.gov/FormW9 for instructions and the latest information.

1. Name (as shown on your income tax return). Name is required on this line; do not leave this line blank.
2. Business name/disregarded entity name, if different from above.
3. Check appropriate box for federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one of the following seven boxes.
   - Individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC
   - C Corporation
   - S Corporation
   - Partnership
   - Trust/estate
   - Limited liability company. Enter the tax classification (C=C corporation. S=S corporation. P=Partnership)
   - Other (see instructions)

4. Exemptions (codes apply only to certain entities, not individuals; see instructions on page 3):
   - Exempt payee code (if any)
   - Exemption from FATCA reporting code (if any)

5. Address (number, street, and apt. or suite no.) See instructions. Requester's name and address (optional)
6. City, state, and ZIP code
7. List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I  Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II  Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN. If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

Employee Acknowledgement for Notice of Marketplace

The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA, or the federal law known as Health Care Reform) requires that you must be informed of the following information:

➢ About the existence of the Marketplace;
➢ That you may be eligible for a premium tax credit if the employer’s plan does not meet certain requirements or you are not offered employer sponsored health coverage;
➢ That if you purchase coverage through the Marketplace, that you may lose the employer contribution toward the employer-sponsored coverage and that all or a portion of the employer’s contribution may be excludable for federal income tax purposes;
➢ Include contact information for the Marketplace and an explanation of appeals rights.

The Marketplace Notice must be given to ALL employees.

You are hereby provided with a completed Marketplace Notice and support information to further your understanding of the existence of the Marketplace.

If you have any questions or concerns about your WVU employee benefits, please contact your benefits coordinator or email ACABenefits@mail.wvu.edu. If you have questions about the Marketplace, please visit Healthcare.gov.

By providing your signature below, you hereby accept the receipt of the Marketplace Notice and acknowledge awareness of the existence of the Marketplace as an alternative option for health care coverage.

NOTICE of WV Health Insurance Marketplace

This notice does not require any additional action on your part.

The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (commonly known as "ACA" or "Obamacare") requires employers to provide information to all employees regarding the availability of the new Health Insurance Marketplace. Enclosed is a formal notice that follows the recommended federal model. We have tailored the second page of the document to include specific information about the availability of health insurance coverage to employees of this institution.

If you are interested in pursuing additional information about the Health Insurance Marketplace, you should follow the directions in the enclosed notice and go to HealthCare.gov. If you visit this website, additional information may be needed to determine your eligibility to participate in the Marketplace, including the following:

- There is no waiting period for health insurance in our system, so if you are not eligible now, you will not be eligible within the next three months unless your employment status changes to meet the definition of "eligible employee" contained in the notice.
- WV Public Employees' Insurance Agency (PEIA) insurance plans do meet the minimum value standard.
- Premiums to participate in the PEIA health insurance plans are based on salary levels, and information regarding the cost is available in the WV PEIA Shopper's Guide for Plan Year 2015 at www.wvpeia.com.
- We are not aware of any major changes affecting eligibility anticipated in the coming plan year.

For more information regarding the new Health Insurance Marketplace, please visit HealthCare.gov.

For questions regarding your current WVU employee benefits, please contact the WVU Benefits Administration unit at ACABenefits@mail.wvu.edu or (304) 293-5700 ext. 4.

This notice does not require any additional action on your part.
New Health Insurance Marketplace Coverage Options and Your Health Coverage

PART A: General Information

When key parts of the health care law take effect in 2014, there will be a new way to buy health insurance: the Health Insurance Marketplace. To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this notice provides some basic information about the new Marketplace and employment-based health coverage offered by your employer.

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?
The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers “one-stop shopping” to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premium right away. Open enrollment for health insurance coverage through the Marketplace begins in October 2013 for coverage starting as early as January 1, 2014.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?
You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn’t meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you’re eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?
Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer’s health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the “minimum value” standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit.¹

Note: If you purchase a health plan through the Marketplace instead of accepting health coverage offered by your employer, then you may lose the employer contribution (if any) to the employer-offered coverage. Also, this employer contribution — as well as your employer contribution to employer-offered coverage — is often excluded from income for Federal and State income tax purposes. Your payments for coverage through the Marketplace are made on an after-tax basis.

How Can I Get More Information?
For more information about your coverage offered by your employer, please check your summary plan description or contact WVU Administration at ACABenefits@mail.wvu.edu

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

¹An employer-sponsored health plan meets the “minimum value standard” if the plan’s share of the total allowed benefit costs covered by the plan is no less than 60 percent of such costs.

Here is some basic information about health coverage offered by this employer:

- As your employer, we offer a health plan to:
  - [ ] All employees. Eligible employees are:
  - [ ] Some employees. Eligible employees are:

- With respect to dependents:
  - [ ] We do offer coverage. Eligible dependents are:
  - [ ] We do not offer coverage.

- [ ] It checked, this coverage meets the minimum value standard, and the cost of this coverage to you is intended to be affordable, based on employee wages.

-  Even if your employer intends your coverage to be affordable, you may still be eligible for a premium discount through the Marketplace. The Marketplace will use your household income, along with other factors, to determine whether you may be eligible for a premium discount. If, for example, your wages vary from week to week (perhaps you are an hourly employee or you work on a commission basis), if you are newly employed mid-year, or if you have other income losses, you may still qualify for a premium discount.

If you decide to shop for coverage in the Marketplace, HealthCare.gov will guide you through the process. Here's the employer information you'll enter when you visit HealthCare.gov to find out if you can get a tax credit to lower your monthly premiums.
